

B-C THE NASHVILLE TENNESSEAN, Sunday Morning, June 21, 1953

"Prep Prattle"

"With SAP and SPO both in the swim
And the DBS gals in convention
Prep Prattle has parties and more parties
And all kinds of fun to mention."

Tuesday afternoon the S. A. P. Club entertained at their annual summer party held this year at the Rawlings. First on the agenda was swimming and Bebe Minton, John Davis, Emeline Riddle, Sam Vail, Bibby Tenison, Andy Coles, Elizabeth Ewing and Bill Woods agreed that the water was fine!

The picnic supper was enjoyed by all and especially by Ellen Wills, Seawell Brandau, Tish Fort, Mike Moss, Florence Stumb, Jimmy Dale, Betty Caldwell, and Phillip Boyd. The movie that followed will long be remembered by Mary Louise Lea, Slayton Diehl, Cornelia Faust, John Gorman, Ann Benton, Rob Lightfoot, Liz Smith, and Dick Anderson for the spine-tingling flick was "The Return of the Vampire."

The SPOs hosted their annual swimming party Friday at Horn Springs. After an afternoon of sunning and dunking Dick Murphy, Lucy Tritschler, Eddie Blackman, Camille Smith, Jerry Cornelius, Louise Scheffer, Tommy Marshall, Mary Evans, Jimmy Pemberton, Emily Harsh, Bill Woods, Dorothy Smith, Hugh Ammerman, and Marion Malone partook in the delectable picnic supper. Later on in the evening Tommy Simpkins, Pat Long, Richard Sweeney, Katie Sue Dickey, Stanley Fossick, Barbara Jones, James Carrell, Jeanne Rose, Stanley Gale, Arlene Hightower, Joe Gorman, Nancy Bowers, Charles Grooms, and Beverly Green danced on the pavillion after welcoming alumni Harold Austin, Joanne Dyer, Novus Henry, Barbara Green, Don Jones, Dottie Leech, Don Pemberton, Betty Blevins, Bill Patrick, Alice Gant, Al Phillips, Jere Pinson, Wilburn Smith and Evelyn Bridges to the never-to-be-forgotten affair.

The Kappa Phi boys gave one humdinger of a rush party Saturday. They all headed out to Percy Warner where the afternoon was filled with a softball game. Swinging bats and chasing flies were Steve Wood, Bobby Lineburger, Mat Gorman, Tommy White, Julian Norman, Charlie Trimble and Bobby Alford and rushes Tray Russell, Bobby Street, Courtney Marshall, Buddy Skinner, Steve Thompson, Bob Napier, Don Brothers, Steve Ewing, Jimmy Burke, Tony Brush, John Burch, Ronnie Martin, Buddy Kincaid and Charlie Martin. Next came a picnic supper and after that the guys all rushed to a movie. 'Twas declared that the Kappa Phis sure do know just how to have plenty of fun!

DBS Gals Enjoy Sightseeing in New Orleans

Eating dinner at Antoine's and window shopping down Royal Street was only part of the fun that Martha Lentz, Mary Ann Bethshares, Betty Reynolds, Dee Ewing, Margaret Ewing and Betty Chiles had while attending the DBS convention in New Orleans this past week. There to congratulate Pinky Van Ness on being chosen "outstanding DBS girl" were Martha Grizzard, Suzanne Shearson, Lane Russell and Jane Blackwelder who declared that the round of activities planned for them and their sisters was simply "unbeatable".

Nancy Headden, Edythe Mae Hollabaugh, Mary Ann McDowell, Linda Edenfield, Arlene Hightower, Jane Tuck, Peggy Adams, Nancy Bowers, Shirley Tune, and Shirley Sumpter exchanged the latest chatter Thursday over drink and delicacies. Lucy Tritschler was the host and before the guests left she had heard many "thank yous" for a wonderful time.

Tuesday Lee Ann Allen took the opportunity and had one last get-together before many of her friends set sail for a summer tour in Europe. Connie Stevens, Dede Bullard, Peggy Casparis, Mary Schlater, Polly Jordan and Marilyn Noel listened to Margaret Oliver, Betsy Riddle, Sally Estes, Cynthia Carrier, Binnie Barr and Polly Ann Trabue describe their recent trip to the sunshine state. College days are in store for this group next fall and of course their conversation included this too as well as the exciting chatter about a summer abroad.

Mrs. Hoyt Strother entertained Thursday at a luncheon and swim party honoring her niece Barbara Freeland. Among the guests enjoying the summer social were Delane Smith, Karen Kane, Peggy Reynolds, Linda Kelly, Mary Ann Braden, Gail Smith, Tress Tupper, Juliette Auerbach and Sally Smith.

Bebe Moody of Houston, Texas, will be the honoree at a dinner party given by Mrs. John McCall tonight at BMCC. Bebe's date will be John Hardcastle and the other couples included Gene Jarmon, Bob Franklin, Judy Brooks, Bob Lightfoot, Betty Brothers, Bobby Carlton, Ellen Wills, Wardwell Buckner, Martha Casey, Jimmy Armistead, Frances Cheek, John Sloan, Joanne Hooper, David Herbert, Bebe Minton, Garrett Adams, Gardner Orr, Seawell Brandau, Florence Stumb, Jimmy Dale, Gertrude Sharp, Buzzy Boyd, Helen Davis, Bobby Dudley, John McCall, Ann Clark, John Davis and Retta Moody.

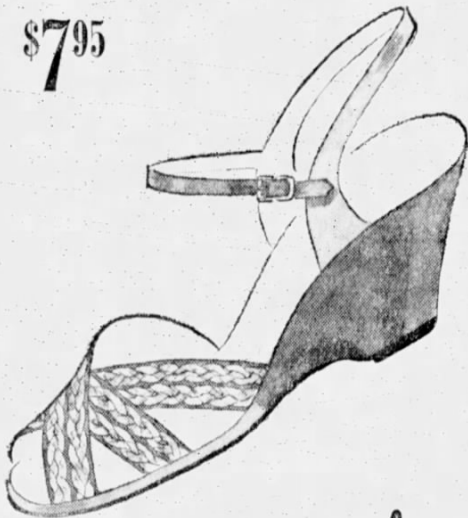

Thursday night some of the gang got together at Peggy Reynolds' house for a bite to eat, dancing and conversation. Besides Peggy and Don Brothers there were Mary Ann Braden, Buddy Skinner, Linda Christie, Jimmy Thurman, Beverly Bryan, Runcie Clements, Tress Tupper, Bob Napier, Karin Kane, Luke Lea III, Margaret Ann Teas, Billy Hunter, Peggy Kirtley, Jody Wallace, Joanne Gourley, George Sloan, Virginia Tenison and Clay Huddleston.

Notable Notes and Quotable Quotes: Wish we could have been at the dockside to wave "good-bye" to Trish Ingram, Mary Schlater, Peggy Casparis, Connie Stevens, Dede Bullard, Punky Farrell, Gracie Ward, Aggie Fort and Corrine Scales when their boat sailed yesterday at noon. Mary made it a real holiday and went up to New York several days in advance to visit relatives and see the sights.

Newest summer romance news is that Ann Dennis is ringed to Dan McGugin — best wishes to them! Visiting in town is Ann Barber who is a guest of her cousin Gertrude Sharp — this cute visitor from up Connecticut way is always welcome! More honors for Prep Prattlers—Judy Brooks will edit the school annual at Miss Madeira's next fall and Martha Casey will head the honor council at Holton Arms—congratulations to both of these smart misses! If you happened to pick up a Birmingham paper last Thursday you would have seen a picture of Sally Estes, one of our Nashville favorites, as she is visiting Carolyn Simpson in that city — in return "Simpy" will visit Sally later on—good news for the many friends of hers here!

You will live in these
Cool Smart Sandals

$7.95

White straw vamp with calf trim. Beige straw vamp with bright calf.

Tinsleys

... because you love smart things