

"Prep Prattle"

*"There are lots and lots of parties this week
And plenty of fun to boast;
And one of the best is a marvelous hayride
With the Kappa Phis serving as host."*

Last night the Kappa Phis hosted their annual hayride and at what better place than Milner Ball's farm! A picnic supper opened the festivities and seen eating plates full of delish barbecue and all the fixin's were Bobby Lineberger, Ann Mashburn, Steve Wood, Nancy Bowers, Matt Gorham, Edie Hollabaugh, Tuffy Norman, Jill Butler, Bobby Hollabaugh, Linda Champion, Bobby Alford, Pat Cassell, Milner and Berenice Miller. Next came the skits and John Gorham, Patricia Champion, Whit Watson, Peggy Lauderdale, Don Murray, Margaret Buford, Stewart Thau, Carol Campbell, Albert Goodpasture, Betty Jean Lauderdale, Vernon Davis, Joyce Carter, Dick Scales, Mary Faith Templeton, Martin McNamara, and Kay Kelly were only part of the crowd who sat round the fire and enjoyed the hilarious activity. When time for the hayride came Dickie Martin, Van Kirtley, "Bulldog" Overton, Betsy Ball, Al Strayhorn, Linda Christie, Ward Buckner, Susan McKeand, Jim Reavis, Eleanor Hill, Jim Kavanaugh, Dawn Scheffer, Bobby Dennis, Cindy Davis, Ted Lee, Emeline Riddle, Don Wolfe and Julie Scheffer were among the first to scramble aboard the wagons. After a long ride the groups headed toward the house where last but best came dancing to end the perfect evening.

* * *

Friday after the MBA-SMA game the hill was really hopping! All the cats and kitties were really going to town in the MBA

Honor Room. Liz Smith, Dickie Anderson, Ann Huddleston, Mac Brothers, Bev Bryan, Runcie Clements, Mag Teas, Billy Hunter, Nancy Bowers, Steve Wood, Ann Mashburn, Bobby Lineberger, Sandra Bain, John McIntosh, Martha Saeger, Billy Phiffer, Ann Benton, Edward Blank, Peggy Smith, John Sloan, Helen Forker, and Russell Hooper were only a few that were on hand for this first Bell Hop and all agreed that it positively should not be the last!

* * *

Schottisches and Polkas Learned at Costume Party

Friday night Marilyn Kennedy, Dick Speight, Lynn Shull, Claude Woodall, Bobbie Chambers, Mickey Wakefield, Catherine Snyder, Robin Churley, Ann Boulton, Bobby Russell, Lee Churchill and Gilbert Smith dressed in the costumes of children from foreign countries hurried to Green Trees farm, the home of the Battle Rhodes out Franklin way. There Charlotte Woodard was their hostess to an evening of folk dancing. The party was held in the gaily decorated "Great Hall" where Charlotte's parents acted as dance instructors. Taking lessons in how to master the "Jibi-di, Jibi-da," a French circle dance, were Missy Herbert, Alice Lowenthal, Ira Parker, Carl Sebelius, Nancy Hedrick, Jane Cunningham, Steve Miller, Ben Mayes, Suzanne Polk, Gretchen Grimes, and Alan Purdy. Before the evening's conclusion everyone had performed a Lithuanian dance called "Wooden Shoes," some schottisches and polkas plus the old favorite American folk and square dances. It was such different fun that there was barely time to sandwich in the wonderful refreshments!

* * *

Friday afternoon Nancy Gropp, Linda Blackwood, Mary Lou Ryan, Gail Goss, Lane Russell and Matilda Martin left for another won-