

4-B THE NASHVILLE TENNESSEAN Sunday Morning July 4, 1954

The Fourth of July issues an invitation
For picnic fun and special celebration.
Prep Prattlers are heading for their favorite pool
To cool the heat by keeping cool.
Some are leaving for the sand and sun
Only to return next week for hometown fun!

There has been a round of parties this week for Nancy Bowers, a prominent Prep Prattler, who is moving to Hagerstown, Md. Tuesday Monday, Ann Dennis did the hosting at her house. Arriving at Ann's bearing good-bye gifts were Mary Ann McDowell, Edie Hollabaugh, Shirley Sumpter, Dorothy Smith, Patsy Morgan, Janet Gaines and Peggy Adams. After Nancy had opened the presents and thanked everyone, the girls were served cooling drinks, sandwiches, and cookies. Lucy Tritschler was the next to honor Nancy at a pop party at her house Wednesday. All the guests brought a picture of themselves to be placed in the photo album which Lucy gave Nancy. We are sure that Nancy will long treasure this album with the pictures of all her friends including Patricia Miller, Virginia Scruggs, Jane Turk, Adelaide Ray, Helen Landon, Gail Sheppard, Dorothy Smith, Peggy Adams and Ann Dennis. Friday night Shirley Tune did the entertaining for Nancy. Shirley, Jimmy Stein, Nancy, Steve Wood, Peggy Adams, Billy Ingram, Ann Dennis, Floyd Adkisson, Lucy Tritschler, Jack Farrar, Dorothy Smith, Reborn Burrell, Mary Ann McDowell, Jim Overall, Joy Thornton and Jerry Cooley enjoyed a wonderful evening of dining and dancing. Mary Ann McDowell and Peggy Adams, along with their dates, Brooks Laymon and Billy Ingraham, offered their hospitality to Nancy last night. Badminton and dancing were some of the evening's activities which Nancy Headen, Jack Farrar, Dorothy Smith, Edie Hart, Maren Churchill, Tommy Irwin, Shirley Tune, Jimmy Stein, Arlene Hightower and Tuffy Norman wholeheartedly took part in. Here's wishing Nancy not good-bye but so long in hopes that she will make frequent visits to Nashville.

Wednesday night was square dance time at Oak Hill. Joe Gibson called the farm dance frolicking for Tress Tupper, Edward Herbert, Liz Ewing, Hayes Cooney, Lillian Campbell, Cliff McPherson, Fran Keltner, Warren Davis, Nancy Gibson, Jim Harrell, June McCoy, Charlie Herbert, Carol Landsen and Jimmy Rule. Seen pausing just long enough for some cooling refreshments were Bill Lightfoot, Louellen Nordholt, Betty Stevens, Frances Horn, Tommy Puryear, Chris English, Dick Gayden and Julie Scheffer.

Dancing With ROTC Cadets At Smyrna Is Lots of Fun

Thursday night Gardner Orr, Peggy Hill, Ann Harwell, Frances Cheek, Betty Brothers, Kay Woodard, Nancy Tupper, Bernice Miller, Ginger Morehead, Ann Hawkins and Mandy Simpson donned their prettiest summer frills and were off. They spent the evening dancing and chatting with some of the boys who belong to the ROTC at various colleges over the South and are stationed at Smyrna Air Base for the summer.

Tish Fort helped Irene Jackson entertain her visitor, Ann Cunningham from Massachusetts, by inviting all the crowd to her house last Saturday night. Besides enjoying meeting Ann, Carol Minton, Betty Caldwell, Bibby Tenison, Judy Maddox, Emeline Riddle, Myrna Robinson and Carol Landsen enjoyed some good games of badminton, croquet, and then TV. Carol Minton also did some entertaining honoring Ann on Monday. The voices of Pam Parker, Elise Dobson, Nancy Hardison, Tish Fort, Betty Caldwell, Carol Landsen, Linda Williams, Bibby Tenison, Betty Shwab, Barbara Massey, Judy Maddox, Marilyn Hovey, Myrna Robinson and Emeline Riddle were overheard as they chatted around the luncheon table and then later the bridge table. Ann and Irene left Thursday for two weeks in Monteagle and then will return to Nashville and we are looking forward to seeing both of them again.

NOTABLE NOTES AND QUOTABLE QUOTES - Saw Nancy Bowers, Steve Wood, Linda Champion and Dickie Jones picnicking in Montgomery Bell Park Saturday. After they had eaten their lunch, saw them again boating and swimming in the lake and they were having a wonderful time. . . . Certainly enjoyed meeting Janet Paschal from Okla. and Jannet Vets from Fort Worth, Texas who came in town with Mary Corinne Brothers from Camp Nakanawa. The girls spent most of their visit with the dentist but we do hope that they will pay Nashville another visit soon. . . . Patricia Champion has just returned from a two weeks trip to Memphis where she was the house guest of her cousin, Sue Dell Brewer. . . . Judy Brooks and Betty and Runcie Clements are spending this Fourth of July week end fishing and relaxing with their families at Watts Bar. But they come back with some good stories about "the one that got away". . . . Jere Pinson and Al Phillips left early Saturday with Al's parents to enjoy some vacation time and doings in Guntersville, Ala. . . . Joyce and Suzanne Furman are visiting Frances Dorris in Gallatin this week and Frances' friends are turning out the welcome mat and hosting all kinds of parties for these two cute visitors. . . . Congratulations to Ann Bennett who was elected to the Hall of Fame at the DBS Convention at Hot Springs, Ark. Also we are mighty proud of Pinky Van Ness and Martha Grizzard who was elected first vice president and historian of the convention.
